

The Washington Post

This Washington Post poll was conducted by telephone June 19 to 23, 2013, among a random sample of 1,106 adult residents of the Washington metro area, including landline and cell phone-only respondents. The results from the full survey have a margin of sampling error of plus or minus 3.5 percentage points; the error margin is six points among the sample of 338 Redskins fans. The error margin is 4.5 points for the sample of 641 adults who commute for work. Sampling, data collection and tabulation by Abt-SRBI of New York.

The Washington metro area defined as the District of Columbia, Prince George's and Montgomery counties in the state of Maryland and Alexandria, Arlington, Fairfax, Fairfax City, Falls Church, and Loudoun Counties in the commonwealth of Virginia.

NOTE: Trend references from previous polls are based on the current area definition.
